FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Office of the Mayor

Town of Rocky Hill, Connecticut

Following the announcement by the Office of the Connecticut Attorney General that it has opened a civil investigation into the management of Concierge Apartments under the Connecticut Unfair Trade Practices Act, Mayor Allan Smith has issued the following statement:

"Our priority has always been the safety and well-being of the residents who call Concierge Apartments home. Over the past weeks, our fire, building, health, and human services teams have committed significant time and resources to addressing conditions at the property and supporting residents through a difficult and disruptive situation. We appreciate Attorney General Tong and his office for taking these concerns seriously and bringing the full resources of the State of Connecticut to review the circumstances surrounding this property. The State has tools and investigative capacity beyond what is available at the municipal level, and we welcome their involvement as we continue working toward solutions that not only address the current situation, but help prevent similar issues from occurring in the future."

Residents in need of assistance or support services may contact Rocky Hill Human, Youth and Senior Services at 860-258-2799, or locate additional information here: <https://www.rockyhillct.gov/209/Human-Youth-and-Senior-Services>
